

Library Support for Extension Students

The UNCW Randall Library and the CCCC Learning Resources Center are working together to offer full library services for students enrolled in the UNCW Extension Program!

Librarians are here to help!

Walk-up Service

Librarians are available to answer any question big or small at the Randall Library Research Help Desk or CCCC LRC Service Desk.

Library Books Mailed to You--Free!

All extension students may request Randall Library books for their own use. They will be mailed to you at your home address at no charge.

We can also send you books and articles from other libraries.

How does it work?

We provide these services to you through our Interlibrary Loan (ILL) department. Once you set up an ILL account, you can request the materials you need.

To set up your account, go to
<https://illiad.uncw.edu/logon.html>

- Click "First-Time Users"
- Identify yourself as a "Distance Education" Student under Status
- Fill in your home address
- For the request, fill in the form with the information about the book/article you want
