ENG 201 SLO 1. List terms that may be useful for locating information on a topic.

- Maps to 1.1.e.1* / Assessed through “My Research Strategy” website (completed in class)

ENG 201 SLO 2. Identify alternate terminology, including synonyms, broader or narrower words and phrases that describe a topic.

- Maps to 2.2.b.3 / Assessed through “My Research Strategy” website (completed in class)

ENG 201 SLO 3. Demonstrate an understanding of the concept of Boolean logic and constructs a search statement using Boolean operators.

- Maps to 2.2.d.2 / Assessed through “My Research Strategy” website (completed in class)

ENG 201 SLO 4. Demonstrate an understanding of the concept of truncation and uses it appropriately and effectively.

- Maps to 2.2.d.7 / Assessed through “My Research Strategy” website (completed in class).

ENG 201 SLO 5. Demonstrate an understanding of the concept of keyword searching and uses it appropriately and effectively.

- Maps to 2.2.d.6 / Assessed through “My Research Strategy” website (completed in class).

ENG 201 SLO 6. Determine if a book is available immediately.

- Maps to 1.3.a.1 / Assessed through “My Research Strategy” website (completed in class).

ENG 201 SLO 7. Use different research sources (e.g., library catalog and databases) to find different types of information (e.g., books and articles).

- Maps to 2.3.a.4 / Assessed through “My Research Strategy” website (completed in class).

ENG 201 SLO 8. Select appropriate tools (e.g., databases) for research on a particular topic.

- Maps to 2.1.c.5 / Assessed through “My Research Strategy” website (completed in class).

ENG 201 SLO 9. Select relevant articles by examining elements such as the article title, abstract, source, and date of publication.

- Maps to 2.4.a.3 and 2.4.a.4 / Assessed through “My Research Strategy” website (completed in class).

ENG 201 SLO 10. Determine if the full-text of an article is available immediately.

- Maps to 1.3.a.1 / Assessed through “My Research Strategy” website (completed in class).

ENG 201 SLO 11. Demonstrate a general knowledge of how to obtain information that is not available immediately.

- Maps to 1.3.c.2 / Assessed through post session quiz questions

ENG 201 SLO 12. List methods for obtaining research assistance in the library and using the library’s website.

- Maps to 2.3.c.3 and 2.3.c.5 / Assessed through post session quiz question

*These numbers correspond to various information literacy outcomes established by higher education organizations:
http://library.unce.edu/instruction/assessment/student_learning_outcomes_menu