

Randall Library Diversity Committee
William Madison Randall Library
601 S. College Rd., Wilmington, NC 28403-5616
(910) 962-3760
libref@uncw.edu
Last updated: 2 August, 2007

About the Diversity Committee

Definition of Diversity

An organization that embraces diversity recognizes and appreciates the variety of characteristics that make individuals unique in an atmosphere that promotes and celebrates individual and collective achievement and that strives to enhance our shared experience as human beings.

Mission Statement

The Randall Library Diversity Committee is charged with implementing the University of North Carolina Wilmington's campus diversity initiative. Ultimately, the committee aims to create and foster a welcoming, comfortable library environment for all members of the campus community and beyond. The committee welcomes collaboration with campus and community groups to create and facilitate programs which will enhance the Library as a receptive and engaging place, embracing the diversity of age, ethnicity, ideology, national origin, physical abilities, race, religion, and sexual orientation.

Founding Members of the Committee

- Carolyn Andrews
- Madeleine Bombeld
- Jan Costley
- Peter Fritzler, Secretary
- Joyce Johnson
- Rebecca Kemp
- Liza Palmer, Co-Chair
- Anne Pemberton, Co-Chair
- Elizabeth Peterson

Our Top Priorities

- Continue to develop the library's collections to reflect the diversity of UNCW
- Collaborate and partner with campus groups/offices
- Offer programming in the library that addresses issues and themes of diversity