WELCOME!

Randall Library promotes student and faculty success in learning, teaching and research. Library staff builds, manages, and preserves research and information collections; serves the information needs of our community in a welcoming physical and virtual environment; and creates and fosters collaborative opportunities for study, research and service.
Learning Commons – 1st Floor
http://library.uncw.edu/learningcommons
A collaborative space to study, research and work.

Group Study Rooms – 1st & 2nd Floors
Available for groups of two or more, on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Quiet Spaces – 2nd Floor
The second floor of the library has been designated a quiet study space.

Technology Assistance – 1st Floor
- Equipment Checkout: Borrow laptop computers (Dell & Apple); headphones; Flip video cameras; flash drives.
- Technology Assistance Center (TAC):
  http://www.uncw.edu/TAC
Located at the back of the library. Answers questions and provides support for all your computing issues or problems.

Java City at Randall Library – 1st Floor
Java City offers coffee, tea, juice, sandwiches, bagels, muffins and more!

Art at Randall Library
Our gallery spaces, art walls and glass cases showcase the art collections of local artists. Artwork includes photographs, drawings, paintings and much more.

Collaborations
Student, faculty and staff collaborations are encouraged by the many departments who share our facility - Distance Education and Video Network Services, Honors College, Information Technology Systems, Office of eLearning, Public History Program, and Women’s Studies and Resource Center.
