RESOLUTION 07.11.29.2016:

‘A RESOLUTION TO EXPRESS THE URGENCY OF LIBRARY EXPANSION ‘

Short Title: Resolution to Support the Expansion of the Library
Author: Caleb J. Mabe, Junior Class Senator
Sponsors: Ally Kristan, Senior Class President; Meredith Lewis, Junior Class President
Mandates: Dr. Jose V. Sartarelli, Chancellor; Marilyn Sheerer, Provost; Pat Leonard, Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs; Sarah Watstein, University Librarian; Anna Ray, Access Services Coordinator; Stephen Meinhold, Faculty Senate President

WHEREAS, the Student Government Association of the University of North Carolina Wilmington strives to represent the voice and vision of the entire student body, and;

WHEREAS, Randall library has experienced unprecedented patronage and utilization that often exceeds seven thousand entries per day;

RECOGNIZING, that Randall Library has not experienced expansion in three decades, or since 1986;

WHEREAS, the Chancellor has proposed a substantial increase in Freshman Class enrollment between the present academic year and the year 2020;

WHEREAS, the present library space does not adequately address the current needs of the student population of UNCW Students, nor does it address the needs of the UNCW faculty;

RECONGNIZING, the efforts of the Chancellor and Provost to increase the budget of Randall Library and allocate funds to support and address library needs and concerns;

EMPHASIZING, the necessity to modernize, develop, and enlarge the Randall library to proportionately meet the needs of the current student body and anticipate the requirements of an increased freshman class;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Student Government Association of the University of North Carolina Wilmington opposes growth of the freshman class unless a definitive and adaptive plan to expand the Randall Library size, resources, and capabilities is included in the master plan.
